

CASA CORNELIA
LAW CENTER

Position Description: Legal Assistant, Children's Program

The Firm:

Casa Cornelia Law Center is a public interest law firm providing quality pro bono legal services to victims of human and civil rights violations. The Law Center's primary commitment is to the indigent within the immigrant community in Southern California. Our legal services include representation to those in removal proceedings and those seeking affirmative immigration relief. Our clients are asylum seekers, maltreated children, and immigrant victims of domestic violence, human trafficking, and other serious crimes. CCLC provides pro bono representation through its staff and the support of volunteers, such as private attorneys, law students, and interpreters/translators under the mentorship of CCLC attorneys.

The Program:

The Children's Program is CCLC's program dedicated to representing minor and youth clients who lack lawful immigration status in the United States. The program represents all unaccompanied children who are detained in the custody of the Office of Health and Human Services in San Diego and Imperial Counties. The program also represents many unaccompanied children formerly in government custody now resident in San Diego County and other immigrant youth who have never been apprehended by immigration authorities. Clients represented by the Children's Program are most commonly eligible for asylum and special immigrant juvenile status but may also be eligible for citizenship, other forms of relief from removal, or voluntary departure.

The Position:

The Legal Assistant, Children's Program, is a non-attorney professional serving within the Children's Program that provides general administrative support to the program staff and volunteer attorneys in their representation of program clients. The Children's Program serves both detained and non-detained children, and the Legal Assistant, Children's Program, will generally be assigned to primarily assist with either detained or non-detained children's cases and will ordinarily be assigned to only a subset of the tasks listed below. The current opening is for a legal assistant to be assigned primarily to working on cases of detained children.

Appointment and Accountability:

The Legal Assistant, Children's Program, is hired by the Executive Director upon recommendation by the Legal Director and is accountable to the Managing Attorney for the Children's Program.

Primary responsibilities:

The Legal Assistant, Children's Program, will discharge the responsibilities of the position by:
