Casa Cornelia is an equal opportunity employer. We celebrate diversity and are committed to creating a positive and inclusive work environment for all employees. We encourage applicants of all backgrounds.

Our Organization:

Casa Cornelia Law Center is a public interest (non-profit) law firm providing quality pro bono legal services to victims of human and civil rights violations with a primary commitment to the indigent within the immigrant community in Southern California. Our legal services ensure access to humanitarian legal relief through its representation to those in removal proceedings or seeking affirmative immigration relief including asylum seekers, abused and abandoned children, and immigrant victims of domestic violence, human trafficking, and other serious crimes who are eligible under U.S. law. For over 28 years, Casa Cornelia has provided completely free representation through its staff and has the support over 300 volunteers annually, including private attorneys, law students, and interpreters/translators under the mentorship of staff attorneys.

Casa Cornelia strives to serve the community in innovative ways while always focusing on the inherent dignity of every individual we represent. We are committed to maintaining a collaborative professional environment in which our staff and volunteers collaborate with a spirit of professionalism and cheerfulness to ensure that clients experience justice with compassion.

The Development Department:

With an annual operating budget now exceeding $3.5M, Casa Cornelia has demonstrated an ability to provide consistent, high quality services through strategic and sustainable growth. The Development Department is responsible for garnering support from individuals, government funders, private foundations, law firms, and corporations to fund Casa Cornelia's mission. It is also responsible for engaging these supporters and educating Casa Cornelia's benefactors about the impact of immigration law and policy on the public good.

Position Summary:

As the organization's lead fundraiser and a crucial ambassador for our mission, the Director of Philanthropy is essential in ensuring that we will be able to continue serving our community. In pursuit of the mission of Casa Cornelia, they will further the vision and strategic capacities necessary for the success of the organization's development efforts, while monitoring progress against the established goals. They will design, plan, implement, and manage Casa Cornelia's development plans and initiatives, oversee the Development Office and staff, and work with the Executive Director to provide leadership and guidance in support of the Board Development Committee and Board of Directors' fundraising responsibilities.
